Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

John M. Chargin, 33, of 105 Memory Lane, is chairman of Campbell's first planning commission, which drafted city's first master zoning plan and map.

As chairman of this organization, which will present a zoning plan and ordinance to Campbell city Council, October 5th, Chargin as well as other members of the planning commission are working on an important and controversial city function.

Chargin is another of Campbell's attorneys educated at Santa Clara University, where he majored as an undergraduate, in Accounting and Business Administration. He was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science in 1942. While a college student, Chargin was a member of Santa Clara Chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu, National Jesuit Honor Fraternity. He was active in dramatics at the University, and winner of annual Dramatic Art Contest in 1941. He was assigned roles in collegiate productions of "Julius Ceasar", "Henry IV", "Cenodoxus" and the famous Santa Clara Passion Play. He directed and played in Little Theater groups in San Jose and was assistant director of the annual San Juan Bautista Pageant in 1941 in San Benito County.

Born the son of the late Joseph A. Chargin Sr., immigrant from Dalmatia, Yugoslavia, and Josephine M. Chargin, a native Californian from the mother Lode Country, Sutter Creek, Almador County, Campbell's planning commission chairman was the youngest of eight children.

His early education was at St. Joseph's Grammar School, and Bellarmine College Preparatory School.

During World War II, after being commissioned a second lieutenant in Field Artillery from Santa Clara University in 1942, he was assigned to the 346th Field Artillery Battalion of the 91st Infantry Division at Camp White, Oregon, following basic training at Camp Roberts and Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

At war's end, Chargin, a major, had participated as a combat liaison officer to the Second Battalion of the 362nd artillery in the Rome-Arno, North Appenine and Po Valley Campaigns.

He is holder of the Bronze Star, and three battle stars for participation in European Theater of Operations campaigns.

After separation from service in 1946, he continued his studies at Santa Clara and received a Bachelor of Laws degree in 1948, since which time he has been engaged in general practice of law with offices in San Jose.

Married to the former Elizabeth N. Sokol of Easton, Pennsylvania, in 1946 and a resident of Campbell since that time, Chargin now lives with his wife and three children, William, 5, Michael, 4, and Jeanne, age 2 at 105 Memory Lane.

Chargin was elected to the Democratic Central Committee from the Fourth Supervisorial District in the June Primary Election last year and has recently served as temporary organizational chairman for the newly formed Campbell Democratic Club. He is a member of Native Sons, San Jose Parlor 22, Santa Clara County and State Bar Associations, St. Lucy's Mens Club, Campbell and President of the San Jose Chapter of the University of Santa Clara Alumni Association.

COUNCIL HEARS PLAN FOR REGIONAL SHOPPING AREA ON SOUTH HAMILTON AVE.

In an application for commercial zoning of the Kuehnis Estates property at the corner of Hamilton Avenue and San Jose-Los Gatos Highway in Campbell, proponents seek approval of both the council and the planning commission for its inclusion in the master zoning plan, which has been set for hearing on Monday evening, October 5.

The property described in an application filed with the City Planning Commission is an area 500 feet along Hamilton Avenue and 1320 feet along the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway designed for a shopping center.

The million dollar building project, it was pointed out before the city council on Monday night, will include 145,000 square feet of floor space and off-street parking for 1200 cars. Of the floor space, 113,000 square feet would be for a department store, 17,000 square feet for service shops, 10,000 square feet for a restaurant, and 5000 square feet for a financial institution.

The center is contiguous to a 40-acre development in which 140 new homes are projected, embracing April Way, Richlee Drive and Robway Avenue, all in the vicinity of the new Dover School.

The council on Monday evening set the time for hearing the application the evening of October 5 in the auditorium of the Campbell Grammar School, inviting both oral and written objections.

Also scheduled for public hearing on October 5 is an application filed by H. Y. Rice for a shopping center development on 12 acres of his land at northwest corner of Winchester and Latimer avenues.

In other actions at the council meeting Monday, the sum of $300 was allocated to Campbell Chamber of Commerce, Campbell Merchant Stamp Association and Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce as a city contribution toward erecting Christmas decorations along Campbell Avenue from chester Road.

San Jose-Los Gatos Road to Win-

City also agreed to negotiate for clearance with public utility companies for use of their street installations, and to handle insurance for the project, but acting mayor Joseph V. Gomes said the city would furnish no labor.

Chamber of Commerce President Verle Grizzle said he would insure that written permission was obtained from property owners whose buildings would have to be used for cable hookups.

Senior police officer Robert J. Locke reported on the parking situation on Lowell Way and recommended that it be made a loading and unloading zone only from the south property line of Frozen Food Lockers to Sanford Ave. He had reported at an earlier meeting that double parking of trucks and other vehicles made egress and ingress impossible and that it created a traffic and fire hazard.

BUILDING LEASED ON CAMPBELL AVENUE TO CORNET 5-10-25c STORE

The Campbell Avenue business section will take on a new appearance soon with the addition of one of the Cornet chain stores which is to open soon in the Barbano building at the corner of Campbell Avenue and North Central Avenue.

The Campbell store, according to Joe Cornet, Jr., general manager, will be the 82nd of the Cornet 5-10-25 cent Variety Stores now operating in seven states. Others, he said, are located in California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Oregon, Washington and Wyoming.

Negotiations under way for the past several months were finally consummated by Gunn, L'Hommedieu and Company, commercial and industrial realtors in San Jose. Both buildings of the Barbano block, whose agent is Guy Farley, will be consolidated by tearing out the dividing wall to house the Cornet stock and equipment, contractor Max A. Haneter of Los Gatos said yesterday.

The renovated building will have approximately 6,000 square feet of floor space to house its 28 counters and 38 departments. Double entrances will face the 72-foot Campbell Avenue frontage.

As soon as construction is completed, said Dwight Merriman, construction superintendent, fixtures and counters will be installed. At the store opening, date of which will be announced in advertisements in the Campbell Press, 38 local sales personnel will be on hand to service the various departments.

The new store will deal in candy, notions, jewelry, ribbon and laces, style merchandise, art goods, hosiery, lingerie, infants' wear, men's and boys' wear, piece goods, towels, dry goods, toys, books and games, souvenirs, novelties, stationery, toilet articles, kitchen tools, shoe findings, builders' hardware, tools, electrical goods, glassware, pottery, tin, glass, aluminum, enamel wear, pet supplies, housewares, and horticultural merchandise, Merriman said.

Joe Cornet, Sr., is the corporation president, with main offices at Pasadena. Joe Cornet, Jr., is general manager, and Robert Cornet is merchandise manager. R. B. Spawn will be in charge of the grand opening in Campbell, Merriman said.

Leased on an annual basis, starting October 1, 1953, the land is to be used for agricultural purposes.

The acreage may be inspected upon application to the Public Works Officer, Naval Air Station, Moffett Field.

Proposals for leasing will be accepted until September 25, 1953.

BOARD REJECTS WATER SURVEY PLAN IN COUNTY

The plan for spending $55,000 on an economic survey of county water needs was rejected by a 3-2 vote Monday when the Santa Clara County board of supervisors met. The Stanford Research Institute was to have conducted the survey and would have given special attention to the new Reber plan.

Opponents of the study claimed the findings would gather dust on shelves as have so many previous studies of County water needs. The proponents however, claimed the study to be impartial and competent to an extent that economic facts on bringing water to the county might be known. Supervisors Levin, Gaspar and Brown voted against the appropriation while McKinnon and Della Maggiore voted favorably.

A resolution by Levin was approved directing that the County Executive set up a group representing the supervisors, the Farm Bureau, the Grange, labor unions, engineers and economists who would meet similar groups from eleven bay area counties to seek a common solution to water needs and it carried by the 3-2 vote with Levin, Gaspar and Brown in favor and Chairman McKinnon and Della Maggiore bitterly opposing.

COUNTY PLANS TO WIDEN PART OF QUITO ROAD

Plans for widening Quito Road between Saratoga avenue and the Southern Pacific tracks were announced Monday at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors. The only widening contemplated for the present is at the intersection of the road and Saratoga avenue, the remainder of the work to be done within the next several years according to a spokesman from the engineer's affice.

The road would be widened to 90 feet by takiing 40 feet along the eastern side of the 50 foot wide road where it runs through the tract area, while 25 feet would be taken from each side as the road narrows.

LOCAL POLICE NEED VOLUNTEERS; THREE OPENINGS ARE AVAILABLE

Campbell police force, according to Senior Officer Robert J. Locke, is accepting applications for new members of the auxiliary. Locke said there were three openings available to be filled as soon as possible.

Applications may be obtained from City Clerk Dorothy P. Trevethan at 41 North Central Ave. from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily or from regular officers.

Locke said auxiliary policemen are required to attend regular monthly meetings for special training. Such training includes patrol activities, elementary law, traffic control, traffic direction, judo and special self-defense instruction, and gunnery training in the care, cleaning and use of basic police weapons, communications and use of emergency equipment.

Auxiliary policemen are expected to contribute time necessary for training, in addition to two or more night patrols in the company of a regular officer, from 8 p.m. to 3 a.m. or later if required.

Auxiliary policemen are also expected to furnish their own uniforms of pants, shirt, tie and hat. Weapons are carried only on duty under the supervision and control of regular officers of the department, Locke said.

To make for a more cohesive force, Locke said the department intends to hold regular social functions. Such an affair was conducted recently when the force held its first annual barbecue, Sept. 13, at Alum Rock Park.

LT. J. F. KWASIGROCH, or Jack Kay as he is known in Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kwasigroch of 156 Carlyn Ave., is shown above in a picture taken at Freedom Village, where he has been working as aide de camp to Brig. Gen. Ralph Osborne in charge of operation "Big Switch." In a recent letter to his parents, Kay said he had also visited various groups on the UN side of the demarcation line, including Swiss, Swedish and Indian soldiers. Kay described the situation in Korea as "tense," and in his opinion "only a miracle" would prevent a further outbreak.

PATTERN FOR BUSINESS AREA BEFORE PLANNERS AT MEET HERE TONIGHT

City Planning Commission at a meeting tonight in the Campbell Fire House will discuss a street and highway plan submitted by planning consultant Nestor Barrett. It will also receive a report from a committee seeking to determine the best use of funds allocated in the city budget.

A possible subject for informal discussion concerns the two proposed million dollar shopping centers to be erected in Campbell. Both are slated for public hearings at the regular city council meeting on October 5, along with the hearing on master zone plan and map to be submitted by the planning commission.

Application of H. Y. Rice, for a proposed shopping center on Winchester and Lattimer avenues, was submitted to city council for a use and zone permit, August 17. Application of Mayfair Packing Company, Joseph Perucci, Frank DeNapoli, Eugene A. Kuehnis and Lois J. Kuehnis for a regional shopping center on the southeast corner of Hamilton Avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway was submitted for a use and zone permit to the city council last Monday, September 21. Don Stone, of the firm of Stone and Shulte, subdividers, who submitted the Mayfair Packing Company application, had brought up the matter of his client's shopping center on San Jose-Los Gatos Road to the planning commission at their second public hearing, July 2. Stone contends, as he repeatedly pointed out at council meeting last Monday, that his client's application be given consideration because of prior filing and because, he said, he had complied with the wishes of the planning commission and the city council in the matter of filing procedure.

CUHS AND SAN JOSE SCHOOL BOARDS AGREE ON SCHOOL BOUNDARIES IN DISPUTED WILLOW GLEN NO. 10

Controversy over annexation of Willow Glen No. 10, tract of 400 acres in the vicinity of Foxworthy and New Jersey Avenues in the Cambrian district, as it affects Campbell school districts, is reaching a rapid settlement.

In amicable meetings between San Jose Unified School District, Campbell Union High School, and Cambrian District board of trustees, it has been agreed that Campbell school districts will remain as originally laid out.

Campbell High School District will build a new high school at Camden and Union avenues, bonds for which will be put to a vote around December 1, Laurance J. Hill, district superintendent, said today.

Cambrian School No. 2, planned for the near future, will be built in the vicinity of Foxworthy and Ross avenues' intersection, according to Cambrian Elementary School District Superintendent D. M. Bagby.

Petition signed by affected residents in the Willow Glen No. 10 annexation to remain in Campbell school districts, scheduled for public hearing September 28, has been postponed. Hill said the San Jose Unified School District board of trustees requested postponement of the hearing in order that a second petition, now being prepared, may be heard together with the first petition at a date set for 60 days after second petition is signed.

Reason for this, Hill said, is that San Jose school trustees intend to build an elementary school in the vicinity of Kirk Avenue and Foxworthy intersection, to serve the area in the vicinity of Hacienda Gardens as it now stands.

Meanwhile San Jose Unified School District and Cambrian Elementary School District board of trustees have agreed that students living in Willow Glen No. 10, within the boundaries of the Campbell Union High School district, will be taught in schools of the Campbell High School and Cambrian Elementary School districts.

"This setup is logical and reasonable," Hill said, "and should meet with full approval of residents and school boards alike."

"If the second petition, after being signed and circulated is approved, it will mean that school boundaries will be the same as before San Jose's annexation of Willow Glen No. 10 with the exception of Orchard Road and Kirk Avenue section," he said.

CUHS STUDENT KILLED IN S. J. TRAIN, CAR CRASH

A 15-year-old Campbell High School girl was killed enroute to Sunday School in San Jose Sunday morning when the car in which she was riding was struck by the Southern Pacific's northbound Del Monte Special.

Anita Marie Sevier was killed instantly when the train struck the car on the right side, where she was sitting. Her brother, Joseph J. Sevier, 17, who was driving was slightly injured.

The car was thrown about 20 feet into a gully where three children were playing and seriously injured one of the children, an 8-year old boy.

The driver of the car said he failed to notice the warning signal or the train approaching the Auzerais avenue crossing. His only warning—a scream from his sister—came too late.

The injured child is Anthony Tocascio, who was in serious condition at O'Connor Hospital with internal injuries.

Two other children playing with him in the gully about half a block from their homes were only slightly hurt. They are James Hood, 5, and his 7-year-old sister, Penny.

A short time after the accident, Euel J. Sevier, father of the dead girl, and his 5-year-old son, Albert Lyle, came to the grade crossing on the way to the First Baptist Church in San Jose.

His wife, he said, was not with him because she was not feeling well and had decided to remain home from church.

Gloomy faces were seen on Bill Means of Clark's Drug Store, L. W. Harmon, Mayor R. W. Morton, and Doc Arends, and many Campbell High School teachers were all Homer Hyde, Relfe Ehret, but Jim smiles Monday morning of this week. Reason: Saturday's football scores: University of California 0, Baylor 25; Stanford 20, College of Pacific 25.

ESTHER EHLER, RAY WILLIAMS UNITED IN MILITARY CEREMONY

Pastel hues worn by bridal attendants, a flower decked altar and candles provided the lovely background for Miss Esther Ehler during the afternoon nuptials as she became Mrs. Ray Williams.

Esther and Ray were joined in marriage in a military wedding performed by Rev. Gordon King of the Federated Church in Saratoga.

Esther, accompanied by her father, entered the church to the strains of traditional organ music, in a gown of chantilly lace over satin, with basque bodice, St. Elizabeth neckline and full skirt, ending in a chapelt rain.

Her headpiece was ornamented with seed pearls, securing her fingertip veil of illusion net. Complementing her wedding ensemble, the bride carried a bouquet of orchids and her white Job's bible, with bouvardia streamers as she walked altarward with her father.

Frances Schmidt served as her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Patricia Ann Ehler, sister of the bride, Polly Montgomery, Diana Shur, and Joane Stephen. Little Violet Elaine Ehler and Emma Jean Ehler, in floor length gowns, served as flower girls.

Frances was attired in a nile green gown and carried a French bouquet. Polly, Patricia, Diane and Joane wore pastel gowns of aqua and pink and also carried French bouquets.

Roland Williams with Lt. John W. Thompson as honorary best man, attended his brother, as guests were ushered to their places by members of the 63rd Infantry of Fort Ord.

Donna Ralston provided the nuptial music, accompanied by Lois Clausius.

The bride's mother took her place in the church attired in a grey satin ensemble, accented with coral accessories. She pinned on an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegromm selected an afternoon suit of rose taupe and blue accents for the wedding. She also offset her costume with an orched corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the justweds greeted 350 guests at a reception held in the church parlors, where a buffet luncheon was served.

Texas Corn Chips Will Enliven Your Cooking

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

CATTLE, cotton, oil, corn chips, tall handsome men and gracious women, that's the Texas we saw.

From Fort Worth to San Antonio, from east to west in Texas, we ate chili and nibbled on golden corn chips to our heart's content.

In Dallas, Nell Morris, director of Frito Company's research kitchens, gave us lessons in how to use corn chips to brighten up ordinary dishes. You don't have to live in the hospitable Lone Star State to serve these unusual dishes to your family and friends. All you need is some of the know-how Nell Morris gave us under the Texas sunshine.

Texas baked beef hash with golden corn chips is a savory combination to tempt the appetite of anyone whether he hails from the Lone Star State or the Empire State. It has universal appeal.

Texas Baked Beef Hash
(Serves 6-8)

3 medium old potatoes, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon black pepper, 1 medium onion (chopped), 2 cups cooked ground beef, 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup (diluted with 1 can water), 1 cup lightly crushed corn chips (measured after crushing), ½ cup grated American cheese.

In an oiled casserole, arrange a layer of thinly sliced potatoes sprinkled with salt and pepper. Next a layer of chopped onion. Repeat. Top with the cooked ground beef. Heat soup with one can of water and pour over the beef. Sprinkle corn chips and cheese on top. Cover, bake in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) for one hour.

Corn Chip Tomato Rabbit
(Serves 6-8)

Two tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 can condensed tomato soup (10½ ounces), 1 medium onion (chopped), 1½ cups grated cheese, 2 cups corn chips.

Make a white sauce of the butter or margarine, flour and milk. Add 1 cup cheese to white sauce and stir until melted. Add soup and onion. Pour sauce over 1½ cups corn chips in a baking dish. Sprinkle the top with the remaining cheese and corn chips. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

PRIMULA MALACOIDES FOR WINTER MONTHS

Constant color throughout the winter season is the reward of planting fairy primrose or primula malacoides now. This dainty plant literaly blooms itself to death when a garden is in its greatest need of color. Available in red, rose, lavender and white the fairy primrose makes up in abundance of bloom what it lacks in variety of color.

PRIMULA MALACOIDE

A full bed planting is possible if the ground is thoroughly prepared with about 30% of humus worked into the top three inches of soil. These plants thrive on rich loose soil and starve on hard, poorly worked soil which is low in humus content.

Hybridizers have been working on the red shades. This year a fine, strong growing red primula is available. Some improvement has also been noted in tne rose shades but the red will be one of the favorite colors.

Primula malacoides combine well with nemesia or cineraria for shade or semi-shade locations. In such protected areas primula will give its best bloom although it will stand considerable sun in the milder areas and close to the ocean.

LAW IN ACTION

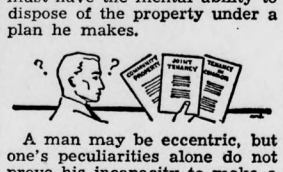
WHO MAY MAKE A WILL

Who may make a will?

In California anyone over 18 years old of sound mind may dispose of property by will. Here a wife as well as her husband can dipsose of one half of the "community" property by will. Any man or wife with separate property—property acquired before marriage or by gift or inheritance, can dispose of all of it also by will.

As for a sound mind, how much mental capacity does one need to make a will?

Enough, when making a will, to know: (1) the kind and amount of one's property; (2) the "natural objects of one's bounty"; (3) and the fact that one is making a will. In short one must have the mental ability to dispose of the property under a plan he makes.



A man may be eccentric, but one's peculiarities alone do not prove his incapacity to make a will. Of course while a person is adjudged insane, he cannot make a will.

As a rule, Californians may hold property as "separate" property or in "joint tenancy," "tenancy in common", or as "community" property.

If you are single you may take title to property in your own name. If so you need not go into problems of joint holdings. For married couples, separate property is what either man or wife acquired before the marriage, or by gift or inheritance. Community property is all other property acquired by either man or wife after the marriage as a result of their joint labor.

Separate or community property may be turned into joint tenancy when two or more persons take title with that expressed purpose. When one joint tenant dies his share passes at once to the survivors who then hold it as separate property. When a tenant-in-common dies, the property does not go to the surviving tenant, but to his heirs.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Surveys show most homes are under-lighted! But it's easy to enjoy brighter, better living—with lighting that picks up the color of your furnishings—guards precious eyesight—perks up your spirits.

NEW CAFETERIA AND SNACK BAR MAKE CHOW CALL AT HIGH SCHOOL PERIOD OF UNHURRIED ENJOYMENT

The thought of feeding a potential 1697 hungry teenagers in two 36-minute periods every noon is enough to make a normal mother an immediate candidate for the nearest booby hatch, but it's done every day at Campbell High School with efficiency and dispatch by five Campbell mothers.

The reason so many can be fed so fast is due to the new streamlined methods, modern equipment, and efficiently designed dining area and snack bar installed this summer.

Serving a complete hot meal, according to government food requirements for proteins, starch and carbohydrates for 15 cents would amaze the ordinary housewife, but this, too, is a feature of the new school.

Mrs. Richard Gleed, manager, dining service at the local high has overall charge of the noon-time chow call, assisted by Loa Robinson, of 12432 Saratoga Ave., Mrs. Bessie Carlentini, 25 South Winchester Ave., Edith Wenge, 135 South First Street, Gretta Pearsall, 17771 McKinnon Drive, Geneva Brown, Almaden district, and Lauraine Brewton, 765 Ridgeley Drive.

Even with seven efficient workers and good equipment, 1600 youngsters are a lot of mouths to feed in a hurry, so 50 students pitch in during study hall and other free periods to help run the busy eatery.

Comes 11 a.m. every school day, and the rush is on. For 35 minutes cafeteria workers are kept busy dispensing meals from two lines at opposite ends of the kitchen area—students at one, faculty at the other. A typical hot meal might consist of a hot roast beef sandwich, green salad, jello and milk.

Then at the snack bar, a separate operation under the direction of faculty commercial instructor Rob Pettengill and a student C.S.F. (California Scholarship Federation) crew, lunchers may buy additional sandwiches, hotdogs, assorted pies, milk, potato chips, milk shakes, cokes and other soft drinks, ice cream cones and candy bars.

In rainy weather, Mrs. Gleed said, students may eat in the dining hall, which comfortably seats 350 students. In good weather there are patio benches attractively arranged on the shaded walks for outdoor eating. Students also group on the grassed areas of the spacious campus to eat their noon-time meal. School's faculty usually eat in a separate room.

Inside the kitchen two standard refrigerators and a large walk-in refrigerator keep fresh vegetables, sandwich mixtures and other small items handy for quick preparation and service. Large cuts of meat are stored in a deep freeze. Two large ranges and one bake oven flame constantly during the preparation of hot meals.

Mrs. Gleed, who does all the buying from local merchants as much as possible, fills in at any spot during working hours as needed, and also handles books and records, which she turns in at the main high school office daily.

The snack bar has five paid employes under Pettingill and unlimited volunteer labor from student members of C.S.F. The better than $100 a day gross receipts go into a C.S.F. fund, which is applied at the end of the school year to the annual scholarship to a graduating senior. Another important use of C.S.F. funds, Pettingill said, is the annual C.S.F. trip given as an award and incentive for high marks during the school year.

Each year, Pettingill explained, C.S.F. students who have maintained a high scholastic average take a school day off, and with C.S.F. funds bolstered by the season's profitable operation of the snack bar, take a trip to San Francisco. Students who took the trip last year toured the liner "President Wilson," which was leaving that day for the Hawaiian Islands, enjoyed a full meal in one of San Francisco's better restaurants, and capped the full day and evening by attending the musical stage play "Carousel."

Mrs. W. A. Brown of Willits has been visiting her mother Mrs. Clara Baldwin of 31 South Second Street. Mrs. Brown was born in Campbell and was amazed, she said, at the changes which have taken place since she was here last.

Villa Montalvo Activities

by Ted Rosenfeld

Senator James D. Phelan authored a poem as follows:

"Know
Ordonez De Montalvo's
Fame
Did he not see
In fantasy
Our California grow
Out of old Spain?
Conferred her name
Foretold
Her gold?
A paradise
For eager eyes
His dream came true
For me and you"

Ordonez De Montalvo, a writer of mid-sixteenth century Spain, wrote a romance entitled "Las Sergas de Esplandian" which told of a land west of the Indies being inhabited by Amazons who rode griffins to war and whose slaves, the wood nymphs, helped guard its treasures of gold and precious stones.

The name of the Amazon Queen was Califa.

When Cabrillo sailed along the coast of North America he found new land that appeared to be 'an island west of The Indies' and which he believed to be that of the Amazons.

With him at the time Cabrillo had a copy of Montalvo's Romance which suggested the name of California to what is now known as Lower California.

Senator Phelan loved the tale which served as his inspiration and theme in his favorite home which he built among the beautiful foothills of Saratoga and which he appropriately named for that prophetic writer "Montalvo".

There are many monuments to Montalvo's Romance at Villa Montalvo: The Wall fountain in the court where one finds inscribed the poem, the Amazons, griffins, wood nymphs. Note the tall pillars guarding Montalvo Road are topped with griffins and the stained glass window over the carved doors of the Villa showing Cabrillo's gallant ship "San Salvador".

The Barn Swallows of Montalvo Barn held a barbeque at Villa Montalvo Saturday night and served roast goat donated by one of the members. The goat was roasted over coals in the large pit and was devoured at tables under the deodars of the Italian garden where the sculptors and their wives sat. Other items of food enjoyed included green salad, and chili con carne

Mr. and Mrs. Scofield, of Peony Gardens, San Jose, donated a collection of bearded iris to Montalvo, sending out 145 plants, 3 of a kind of over 40 named varieties, each plant being tagged with its appropriate name. They should be breath-taking when in bloom, next spring.

The Barn Swallows and all the other members of the Los Gatos Art Association are getting ready for the Art Association's fall exhibition which open with a preview for members and a pot-luck dinner to be followed by an evening musicale.

If a slogan is wanted how simple it would be to adapt 'VIVE LE MONTALVO' from VILLA MONTALVO.

Ceramic classes scheduled to commence next week at the Villa have been filled for the Tuesday and Thursday sessions. It is hoped for additional students to sign for instruction and thus create a Saturday class. The classes are held from 9 to 2. Those interested may call Mrs. Davies at Elgato 4-3725 or 4-3184. World famous, Herbert H. Sanders, will instruct the classes.

Next meeting will be held September 28 at St. Lucy's School at 8 p.m.

Saratino B.P.W. Closes Charter With 39 Members

"Saratino", the Business and Professional Women's Club which includes the Saratoga, Quito Park, and Cupertino areas, closed its charter application with thirty-nine names, which is "a good start" according to President Josephine Gray.

"There are still many more women who are interested in joining," said Mrs. Gray, "and who may do so, and are cordially invited to. They may not be charter members now, but we will have the pleasure of initiating them into the Club."

Initiation fee is $2.50 per year, which must be paid in addition to the $10 yearly dues, by any woman who joins now that the charter is closed

About two dozen women were present at the first regular meeting of the Club, held Wednesday, September 18 at Lundblad's Lodge in Saratoga. A communication was read from Mrs. Hazel Lundblad, in which she regretted that she could no longer have the group meet at her Lodge because of the press of other business.

Since it was difficult to find accommodations in any hall on Wednesdays, the meeting night was voted to be the first and third Mondays. The following day after the September 18 meeting, arrangements were made for the the Saratinos to meet on Manday nights at the Waldorf in Saratoga.

The next meeting will be the third Monday in October—Oct. 19, at the Waldorf. This should be close to the time the charter is returned from the National Business and Professional Women's Headquarters and plans will be made at the October meeting for the installation dinner to be held shortly after reception of the charter.

There were several guests at the September 18 meeting, among them Grace Freudenthal, Presi-Eckel and Velma Hubbel, president-elect of the District; Marie dent and vice-president of the Los Gatos Chapter which is sponsoring the Saratino group, and Frances Vincent, district membership chairman. Mrs. Vincent spoke on the aims of the BPW, informing the listeners that the group was created during World War I when women-power was first being mobilized.

Hunters Cautioned On Heart Troubles

With more than half-a-million Californians afield this fall in the pursuit of deer, bears, upland game birds and waterfowl, the California Heart Association has come up with a few timely suggestions for hunters as an aid in preventing heart failure:

1. Act your age and know your physical limits.
2. Avoid vigorous hill climbs and difficult drives if aware of a heart condition.
3. Do not hunt to the limit of your endurance.
4. Be alert for unusual shortness of breath or pain in the chest as warning of over-exertion.
5. Attempt to condition yourself for the opening day by frequent hikes several weeks in advance of the first hunting day.

The FARMERS CORNER

by Allen F. Mather

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR

California, across the nation, has the reputation of being erratic—perhaps eccentric—in its politics.

We got the name, of course, because of our cross-filing system is not understood and because of the antics our lunatic fringe indulged in some years back.

However, a cursory glance at the top-heavy Republican majorities in both out State Legislature and congressional delegation should convince even the most caustic skeptic that California voters are far from flighty.

This may be a good thing to remember as we go casting about for a successor to Earl Warren.

FAVORITE

The Governor, in recently counting himself out as a fourth-term candidate, opened the field wide to many aspirants who otherwise would not have dared face the barrier.

Who the eventual winner will be is open to question. But in the political "dope sheets" one man rates as favorite.

He is Goodwin J. Knight, our Republican Lieutenant Governor.

He rates high for a number of reasons.

In the first place, it seems reasonably certain Governor Warren is slated for a federal post with the Eisenhower administration. If that proves true, Knight will run as incumbent governor and, with the title and power of the office in his grasp, whatever hope others might have had of licking him will go glimmering. An incumbent is extremely hard to beat.

Even if Warren serves out his term, Knight, as Lieutenant Governor, would enjoy a similarly powerful, if reduced, advantage.

VOTE GETTER

This is the practictl political element which favors Knight's candidacy and is the one which forces the professionals to recognize him as the man to beat.

Moreover, Knight has virtually spent his life training for this race.

Over the years he has become the friend of thousands of California voters; they know him and he knows them. He is a proved vote-getter. In 1950, when he ran for re-election to his present office, he polled 3, 075,000 votes, more votes than any state-office candidate ever rolled up—anywhere.

Yet, as popular as Knight undoubtedly is, it is hardly likely he will win by default. For Knight, to the Democrats, is a conservative and they hope to damn him with that label.

OPPOSITION

Their chances would be immeasurable increased, of course, if they had a first-rate candidate of their own to pit against him.

But the sad fact is they have not. Their only state-office helder, Pat Brown, the Attorney General, seems to have little stomach for the race.

He can't be blamed: Pat comes from Northern California and the votes are down south, where the ebullient "Goody" lives.

However, if not Brown, there will be others to challenge Knight.

The papers, following Warren's announcement of withdrawal, listed a round dozen Democrats who might make the race.

We will have a race but you might remember the political adage: "You can't beat somebody with nobody."

But then, you might remember, too, that political dopesters have been wrong.

Campbell Democratic Council met Tuesday in room 59 of Campbell Union High School to hear speaker George Argall of Los Gatos analyze the "Democratic Digest", a party publication.

Gubser Addresses Local Republicans

One hundred fifty Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee members, associate members and invited guests gathered at the Saratoga home of Robert C. Kirkwood recently to hear the report on the Eisenhower Administration given by Congressman Charles S. Gubser at the traditee barbeque.

Gubser praised the Eisenhower Administration for its deliberate approach to the major problems of the day.

He said "The Republican Administration has been handicapped by the meager majority in both the House and Senate and many reforms were not attempted because of opposition from the minority party. The 84th Congress with a greater Republican majority can accomplish these reforms."

The Congressman predicted an increased Republican membership in the next Congress because "President Eisenhower is more popular today than when he was elected, and the people want to 'give Ike more in '54'."

Gubser was introduced by Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, who spoke briefly highlighting the fact that the affair was being held on Constitution Day.

Distinguished guests introduced by Robert G. Free, Chairman of the Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee, were J. Derrol Chace, Chairman of the United Republican Finance Committee of Santa Clara County, A. Ruric Todd, State Deputy Controller, and A. C. Carmichael, Assayer of the San Francisco Mint.

Other speakers for the evening were Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley and Bruce F. Allen and Senator Jack Thompson.

Bishop Tippett Speaks Tonight

Bishop Donald H. Tippet will speak tonight at the Methodist Rally at 8 o'clock in the Scottish Rite Temple.

Bishop Tippet will present "Africa, Problem or Promise" as the result of his recent three month, 35,000 mile tour of the dark continent.

"Progress of Missions in Helping The Africans to Prepare For World Participation in The Face of a Threat of Communism will be the theme of the evening.

Mrs. David R. Galbraith of Los Gatos served as general chairman of the barbeque and thanked her committee for their assistance in making the affair a success.

Among local Republicans attending: Mrs. D. R. Galbraith, (chairman, Mr. D. R. Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kirkwood, Mr. A. Ruric Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooke, Mrs. Jane Gugel, Mr. and Mrs. T. CAMPBELL HI-LITES

by Bob Olson

ORCHIDS TO—Mr. Garth Norton, our likable Orientation and U. S. History teacher whose wife presented him with a healthy seven pound, twelve ounce son last Friday morning (a very good reason to be absent from school!) From information received, the mother survived the ordeal better than our school's "director of photography." But then Mr. Norton is so proud of James Eric, that new blue-eyed, brown-haired, nineteen-inch Norton, that it was all more than worth it.

RED ROSES AND BLUE RIBBONS TO—Campbell Union High School's Future Homemakers who again covered themselves with all kinds of glory at last week's great County Fair—

T. NANCY THOMPSON for her first in cherries, peaches, pears, chili sauce, parkerhouse rolls, and cotton skirt, seconds in apricots, youngberry jam, and nut bread and for taking the sweepstakes for canned and preserved foods . . . To ELLEN NUNAMKER for her firsts in white bread, sweet rolls, sweepstakes for baked goods, blouse, and wool suit, and seconds for parkerhouse rolls, tailored dress, housecoat, and clothing and textiles sweepstakes.. . To ALICE LASSEN for firsts in silk afternoon dress, housecoat, shorts, wool skirt, childrens' clothing, textiles clothing and sweepstakes and both second and third for blouses. . . . To DONNA PHILLIPS for her firsts in apricot and strawberry jam, seconds in cherries, peaches, and chili sauce, and thirds in apricots and nut bread. . . To CAROL PHILLIPS for her seconds in blackberry jam, apple pie, and wool skirt, and fourth for apricot jam. . . To CAROL YOUNG for her firsts in nut bread and coffee cake, seconds in apricat jam and drop cookies, and thirds for layer cake and her beautiful wool skirt. . To BETTY BECHNER for her firsts in apricots and drop cookies, and second and thirds for pears and cotton skirt. . To MARILYN PETERS for first in youngberry jam and layer cake and thirds for pears and apricot jam. . To JANICE POLGLASE for her first in sponge cake, second for cotton skirt, and fourth for drop cookies. . . To DOLORES NEAL who earned a fourth prize for her nut bread.. . . To JO BUCCELLATO who gained a second prize for her angel food cake . . . and for MYRA RANDOLPH who can well be proud of the first she earned for her rayon skirt . . . and, last but certainly not least to MRS. ROLAND CHARLSON our local FHA chapter's inspiring counselor and leader, whose never-flagging enthusiasm is an inspiration to even those of us not lucky enough to be connected with Campbell High School's dynamic home economics department!

SWEET TOPPINGS to Jean Rafferty who's doing such a swell job as fountain manager for the new Buc's Cove, one place where you can still get giant milkshakes for only 19c, double-decker cones for a dime, or even bars for a nickel.

GOOD LUCK AND G OOD SPEECHES to Steve Haines, the extroverted new president of our Speech and Debate Club.

GOOD SKETCHING to Mr. Berg who's sponsoring a new and much-in-demand Cartoon Club which meets both noon hours on Thursdays.

GOOD TALENT-HUNTING to Mr. Ken Wallace, who again has the old "I can't find any talent" crying towel out, but who, with the help of Janice Muslow, his new drama commissioner, is sure to come up with a great new show this October 22nd and 23rd. This extravaganza has been labeled "Campbell Caravan," and should be worth walking a long way to see.

We were all saddened this week upon learning of the sudden death of one of our best-loved students, Anita Sevier. It is significant that she and her 17-year-old brother, Gerald, were on their way to Sunday school when her fatal accident occurred. For she loved church work almost as much as she did her 5-year-old brother Albert—one baby she was thrilled to "sit" for. It was an especial blow to those Campbellites who saw her passing out religious tracts just the night before her death at the county fair. There is no tragedy quite like losing a daughter, but fortunately, Mrs. Sevier has the faith and optimism of her children. "God wanted her, and I know she's happy in heaven."

Campbell High School's choir is again looking forward to annual "Matinee at the Opera House." With other Bay Area high schoolers they'll travel up to San Francisco on October 14th to hear the "Barber of Seville" sung in the original Italian. They'll probably all return a la Credere Obbedire.

Speaking in foreign tongues, Campbell High's first school dance of the year is going under the slogan "Hi Malihini," which is supposed to be "Welcome newcomer" in Hawaiian. Bob Ostermier and his superb seven will swing out the sweetest strains this side of Harry Owens, and the girls' gym should be swaying with high school dancers in sports garb tomorrow night at 9.

Our ten and twenty basketball teams are playing their first games of the season this afternoon against Capuchino High over at San Bruno. Coach Robinson has over 60 boys out for what he calls a group "that should show some mighty improvement with a few games under its belt." Featuring last year's 110 captain, Paul Uyeda, and a new hot-shot transfer, Ten Kanemoto from Santa Cruz, it should be worth watching. Championship teams like those which won our Bucs so many admiring fans last winter start here on the ground level.

Be sure and catch the radio program Saturday evening, October 24th, which will feature all Campbell High School talent. It'll be a repeat performance of the Variety Show for the air-waves.

High school cheer leaders from all over the Valley in Peninsula will be our guests this Saturday, when Advisor Klaasen and all his high-spirited "spirits" exchange ideas for stimulating high school pep rallies to new heights of enthusiasm. We've never seen anyone with more pep or enthusiasm than Mr. Klassen himself. Even with one arm in the sling, he turns handspringers out of the laziest of us!

POLICE FORCE BARBECUE IS A HUGE SUCCESS

Campbell Police Force called their first annual barbeque at Alum Rock Park a decided success(due to wholehearted support of members and their families, the city police committee and Campbell merchants who donated food and door prizes.

Special guests of the force were Mayor Richard W. Morton and family, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Arends and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Gomes and family.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Walter Baron, Mrs. John Wimbly, and Mrs. Jerry Collins.

American Business Behind The Scenes

by Reynolds Knight

Even though you may be driving in low gear on overcrowded highways, hang on a little longer—highway construction and modernization is moving into high.

The problem won't be solved all at once, but the record $5½ billion put ito roads this year indicates progress is being made. Expenditures in 1953 are 10 per cent ahead of last year, and a greater share of road construction money is going into major state highways—where most improvement is needed This is an important shift from the immediate postwar emphasis on farm-to-market roads.

Moreover, the dollar figures don't tell all. The United States Bureau of Public Roads' highway construction cost index stood at 139 during the first quarter of this year but has since declined to about 132—meaning there will be more road laid down per dollar.

Motorists won't be the only ones to benefit. Motel and hotel operators can look forward to greater business; gas and service stations will have more customers; resorts will get greater patronage, and a sizable piece of money will go into the economy through construction firms and workers. Even government will benefit through increased gas tax revenues.

It will take some time to make up for ground lost during World War II when highway construction came to a standstill, but it looks as though we were on our way at last.

THINGS TO COME—Space patrol! An air conditioned work suit for farmers is made of airtight rubberized material and has a transparent plastic helmet with room for a radio receiver . . . A new paint, when exposed to fire, releases fire inhibiting chemicals. Speaking of paint, lower inventories are promised by a machine developed for paint stores which in a few seconds can mix and deliver the desired amount in any one of thousands of shades . . . A lock to prevent the theft of wheel discs or wire wheels is available.

YAK YAK—There will be more than 50 million telephones in the United States by October, giving Americans plenty of chance to indulge in one of their pastimes—talkin. With phones numbering 50 million each American will have to contend with only two other persons, on the average, if he wants to talk to someone next door or in Timbuktu.

These phones are operated by 5,235 telephone companies. One, Bell System, operates more than 40 million, or 80 per cent of them. The remainder is distributed among the 5,234 independents—an average of about 1,700 phones per company.

VARIETY SHOW TO BE BROADCAST

Saturday evening, October 24, there will be a radio show composed entirely of Campbell High students. This will be the second performance of the Variety Show, and it is being broadcast to promote the bond drive.

So—if you are looking forward to a career in radio, or even if you just want to have a lot of fun, come and try out for the first Variety Show of the year.

SPARTANS TACKLE BRIGHAM YOUNG TOMORROW NIGHT AT PROVO, UTAH

Buoyed by an auspicious victory over Idaho in the 1953 season-opener, San Jose State football team this week travels to Provo, Utah, to meet Brigham Young in a Friday night encounter.

It will be the sixth game in the San Jose-BYU series, with the Spartans winning each previous contest. Last year the Spartans prevvailed, 44-27. Brigham Young opened its season Saturday, defeating Montana, 27-13.

Coach Bob Bronzan's offensive-minded Spartans showed unusual development in whipping Idaho, 34-6. Broonzan had only 14 lettermen and nearly 60 per cent of the Spartans were playing in their first game for San Jose.

They showed this newness in the first half, scoring only on a 56-yard run by Shoeless Joe Ulm, sensational sophomore fullback. It was the first of three score for the 195-pound transfer from Sacramento J. C., and he earned an undying nickname when he threw a shoe halfway through his 56-yard jaunt.

In the seconod half, the Golden Raiders suddenly became a cohesive unit and clearly outclassed the tiring Vandal eleven which in the first 30 minutes had shown a well-drilled, confident, coordinated effort.

Quarterbacks Larry Rice and Benny Pierce both operated with aplomb and directed the team to a total net offensive of 453 yards.

Ulm, covering big chunks of yardage through the middle and around the flanks, gained 168 yards in 14 carries for a 12.0 average. His relief, Jerry Taylor, ripped off 63 yards in six carries while anotther sophomore fullback, Sam Dawson, added 21 yards in five trips.

Veteran halfback Larry Matthews, covered 35 yards in six trips, made two sensational catches of passes from Rice for a total of 42 yards, intercepted one pass with a 10 yard return and returned two kickoffs for 38 yards. Bill Walker, the right half, picked up 26 yards in five carries and intercepted one pass for 17 yards. In all the Spartans intercepted five Idaho aerials, just two less than the Vandals completed.

Rice completed five of 11 passes for 69 yards and also picked up 48 on the ground. Pierce's one toss was intercepted but he made 17 yards in three split-T carries and returned one interception 42 yards.

The Spartans fly out of San Francisco via United Airlines Thursday morning and will be quartered at the Temple Square Hotel in Salt Lake City. They will work out Thursday in Salt Lake City.

The Tide Water Associated radio network will include these bay area outlets: KEEN, San Jose; KROW, Oakland. Broadcast time is 7:45 Pacific Daylight Time.

KIWANIS SLATE CUHS GRID STAFF TALK TUESDAY

Rev Tom Simpson was the guest speaker at Campbell Kiwanis Club meeting this week. He spoke on "Little People who make History".

Dr. W. B. Morrell was chairman of the day. Special luncheon guests of the club this week were five of the six High School students who were awarded scholarships to colleges of their choices. Those present were: Henry Ramp, Rosemarie Magnasco, Julia Haggard, Wayne Pearson and Dean Swenson. Unable to attend was scholarship winner, Carol Knutson.

Bill Means, next week's program chairman has arranged for Campbell High School football coaches to be present to give "Prospects for 1953 CUHS football".

Newton Brown Funeral Set For Tomorrow Here

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. from Rutherford Funeral Home for Newton Brown, of 100 North Central Avenue, a resident of Campbell for the past 27 years. He passed away early Wednesday morning after an illness of several months. A native of Texas he was 7 years old.

Following local ceremonies at Rutherford Funeral Home, conducted by Church of Christ pastors Robert Todd and Cliff Winters, interment will take place at Los Gatos Cemetery.

Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, Menti Brown, sons, Wesley of Campbell and Ardean Lynn Brown, now serving with the U. S. Army, and daughter Mrs. LaVerne Carney of Campbell.

He was the grandfather of six. He was a member of Campbell Church of Christ.

'Hi, Newcomers' Dance At CUHS

The first fall dance of the year at Campbell High School will be held in the Girls' Gymnasium Friday night from 9 p. m. to midnight, as a welcome to 600 freshmen.

Monday, freshman enrollment totaled 549 students and is expected to reach 600 during the week.

"Hi, Newcomers" will be the theme of the dance.

Pat Means is dance chairman and Freshman advisers will be chaperones.

Dr. Charles Fernish Heads Goodwill Group

The Board of Directors of the Goodwill Industries of Santa Clara County announced election of Dr. Charles Fernish as President of the Board. Dr. Fernish, past president of the San Jose Kiwanis Club, member of the City Recreational Commission, and Lay leader of the Willow Glen Methodist Church, succeeds William S. King who resigned due to poor health.

New members appointed to the Board were Forest Pinson of Mayfair Bedding, Wayne Kessel of Alum Rock Methodist Church and Constant Johnson of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

BLOOD UNIT DUE IN CAMPBELL OCTOBER FIFTH

Mrs. William Beyer and a committee from Campbell Community Club have arranged to have the San Jose Red Cross mobile blood unit at the Campbell Methodist Church from 3 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday, October 5th, to solicit blood donations for the armed services.

"San Jose Red Cross Blood Center has noticed an alarming slump in the amount of blood donated since hostilities ended in Korea," Mrs. Beyer said. "What a great many people fail to realize is the tremendous need for blood for soldiers still in army hospitals in Japan and the United States, which must be supplied from civilian donations.

"When people realize the need, such as in times of national emergency, they are quick to give," she added, "but unless a great deal of publicity is given after hostilities or other national emergencies cease, they are just as quick to forget."

Others on the committee who will assist in the one-day collection are: Mrs. Donald Lantz, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Ann Montrezza and Mrs. Lewis Brandon.

The committee hopes to collect more than the 40 pints collected at last drive. Officials pointed out that blood donated may be applied to individual credit cards, which function somewhat like gasoline credit cards in that they may be used in any section of the country by the holder or any member of his family.

Montalvo To Be Setting For A Juried Art Show

The current exhibit of paintings sponsored by the Los Gatos Art Association in the Odd Fellows building here is by Dr. Harold Porter, a retired dentist, who with his wife, is charter member of the Art Association.

There is to be a juried show of the works of all artists at Montalvo from October 4 through the 18th. The show will be open to the public in the afternoons and evenings durthe first week. Courtesy tea will be servver afternoons during that week.

Rosemary School Club Lays Plans For New Season

The 1953-54 plans for the Rosemary Home and School Club monthly meetings were tentatively set by the executive board under the leadership of Mr. Jack Romer at a meeting on Saturday, Sept. 19, at the home of the Clifford Gerlachs.

The first meeting of the school club will be Tuesday evening, Oct. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Rosemary School. The group business meeting will be followed by open house, when parents will visit the school rooms and attend teacher-parent group meetings. Refreshments will include the evening get-together. All parents and friends are urged to be present, and provision for child care during the evening is being made by the nursery chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Evans.

The Home and School Club membership drive is under the leadership of membership chairman, Mrs. Peter Kocjan, and begins Oct. 1. It includes a contest among classes and climaxes the evening of Oct. 13.

The executive board plans to meet on the first Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. in the teachers' room at the school, while the club will hold its business meeting and program every second Tuesday evening, the time of the meeting varying with the type of program planned.
